1. If more people would give their life as a seed, they would grow more fruit. So many want to eat their seed and all the seed around them, thinking only of themselves and their comfort and desires and fulfilling their wants.

2. So few understand or grasp—even elementarily, the concept—the reality, of seed, and their life being seed for future generations. The here and now is the here and now, but future generations build on the here and now that is revealed in truth from those who have laid down their life, and given it as seed, and let it die and be transformed, and then renewed into fruit-bearing trees bearing fruit of Me—watered by rivers of Truth —living waters nurturing the fruit bearing process ordained by Me.

3. Your life is a seed and not lived in a vacuum—to be lived only by you with focus on you—but shared and alivened by death and resurrection into Me. Death to self brings true resurrection in Me and Me is the goal—for the more I am in you the more freedom you have.

4. Your life is a seed and what you do with it determines your destiny—eternal destiny.

5. What you give Me I give back to you manifold times, but Ted, not in money, but in life. This is not about money, it's about life, freedom, seed-time, harvest, reproduction, intercession nurturing and nourishing the seed sowers, for harvest is now, soon, now, today and every day.

6. Oh seed sown before, in Me, is seed blossomed and reproduced in My power, My realm. Life is life and life is not about money. Life is about friendship and relationship and intercessionship and battle, death, resurrection, and life in Me, and Ted, life in Me is better than life not in Me.

7. Your life is a seed that will bear fruit for generations, and your intercessionship will bear fruit for generations, and generations will call you blessed for your life of intercession and putting their lives into yours—your death and resurrection—which brought forth your intercessionship for them, and birthed wisdom and knowledge and understanding, for and into them—to die to self and live life to the fullest in the power of My resurrection.

8. Life is a seed. Every life is a seed which touches so many other lives and bears so much fruit in the process. Some bear fruit for generations and some bear such little emaciated fruit that no one enjoys. And some fruit only hurts other fruit.

9. Oh Ted, tell My body that My fruit comes through Me and time with Me and death of self and resurrection power of Me comes only from time with Me, not microwavably fast, but slowly, slowly, slowly, in My timing of character formation—spirit/soul transformation —of Me, in Me, for Me, for them.

10. And accelerating this process I am, for time is so short. Those who want Me, those who will die, die as a seed falls to the ground and dies, but then arises into bushes and trees and flowers and into full bloom, and reproducing multiple seeds in their process of life and blossoming. So will you, so will they, so will all who understand how I seed every life with so much of Me, and water it they do or don't do.

11. I am a seed, you are a seed, every life is a seed which having gone forth from birth to life to death to death, yields fruit everlasting, in seed beside seed behind seed beyond, and all build.

12. Giving your life for your seed is of Me Ted—your notes of years ago, giving your life for your seed—not in physical death, but in living life—intercession—death to self, freedom of spirit, liberty of Me, freedom for children birthed and lives touched and generations transformed.

13. Generational transfers of My wealth—wisdom—to My followers who will lead and follow, lead and follow, follow, and lead, and lead when they are to lead and follow when they are to follow, and elevate themselves over others never—wisdom, wisdom, wisdom.

14. Generational transfers of wisdom, wisdom, wisdom—impartation of Me through My Mine, to My potentially Mine, to My all Mine.

15. Oh smile and enjoy My lingo and words of description I convey to My seeking. Revelation, death, which brings such true life, hear, now, yielding life eternal in My presence, My presence, My presence.

16. Powerful every seed is.
Powerful every prayer is.
Powerful every thought is.

Reigning thoughts produce more thoughts and thoughts produced reigning thoughts produce power and concepts of Me, or not Me.

17. Increase powerful thoughts of Me so that generations beyond will benefit from seeds sown in life today—yielded unto death, death of selfish flesh, yielded to resurrection power, for wisdom to flow to generations, generations, generations hence, and coming, coming, coming so fast.

Interceding for your seed—thank you.
Interceding for your children—thank you.
Interceding for those I have given you—thank you.

Joy, laughter, peace, provision, promotion.

More, more, more.
